A SUDDEN TWINGE

Of pain is generally the first warning of an attack of rheumatism. It feels as if the disease were in the bones or muscles, but the real cause of rheumatism is found in impure blood. In order to cure rheumatism the blood must be cleansed of the poisonous impurities which are the cause of the disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been very successful in the cure of rheumatism, because it entirely cleanses the blood from the poisonous uric acid which is the cause of the disease.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me of rheumatism after I had tried a dozen remedies without relief and also gone West in search of health," writes Harry Kitter, of No. 1645 6th Street, Denver, Colo. "Only those who have suffered from this dread malady know the pain and misery I endured for over five years. Whenever the weather was damp or cold my troubles were increased and my joints would be so stiff and sore that I was hardly able to move about, and often unable to dress myself. I used a number of highly recommended medicines, but they had no effect whatever on me, and I came to Colorado hoping to regain my health, but failed to obtain the relief I had hoped for. A gentleman in the house where I lived advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and in four months and a half after I began using it I was a well man, and have had no touch of it for the past seven months."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not beget the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor. Put up in vials: always fresh and reliable.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

WEAK HEARTS

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE

The government printing office is rapidly becoming an object of as much ugly suspicion as was the Postoffice Department two years ago, when the rumors of scandal first attached to that department. The office is at present under investigation by a commission appoined by the President to investigate certain charges affecting the contract made by Public Printer Palmer with the Lanston Monotype Company for 72 additional machines. The charges, it is understood, came from the Mergenthaler Linotype Company, a rival typesetting machine company. The testimony so far has not been of a nature to encourage confidence in the printing office. Public Printer Palmer has confessed on the witness stand that he held frequent meetings with the president of the Lanston Monotype Company, and with its chief counsel at the respective homes of these gentlemen, a bad example that appears to have been followed by three other officials of the government printing office, who were connected with the contract. The contract itself that was finally drawn as the result of these meetings, was actually prepared in the office of the counsel for the company.

No evidence has so far been adduced to prove that actual corruption exists in the government printing office. With the enormous amount of paper, printing material of all kinds and bookbinding material, as well as all other supplies that enter into the daily work of the greatest printing establishment in the world, it is natural that suspicion, based on the disclosures already made, is beginning to show its head in Washington. Very unwisely, the present commission investigating the office has decided that its sessions shall hereafter be absolutely secret. Naturally such secresy will avail nothing, and there is now every indication that one of the first acts of the House when Congress meets next winter will be to order a thorough investigation of the government printing office. The printing committees of Congress are already charged with the task of trying to find out the reasons for the enormous amount of work, most of it absolutely useless, which the printing office turns out now at an expense of scores of millions every year. But with the facts that have recently cropped out it is certhat another investigation will be ordered which will sink a deeper probe into the management of the office.

As a result of the present scandal over the typesetting machines, it is generally assumed that Public Printer Palmer will retire. For several years Mr. Oscar Ricketts, the foreman of the office, has practically assumed the work of the Public Printer, owing to that gentleman's age, and he has for some time been regarded as Mr. Palmer's successor, more that one-half the members of the Senate, as well as Speaker Cannon and a large number of the representatives, being his active supporters for the position. But the Lanston people, who openly avow their friendship for Mr. Palmer, and do not deny their hostility to Mr. Ricketts, have made the charge that Mr. Ricketts is the candidate of the Mergenthaler people, and so it is not unlikely that Mr. Ricketts will fail to succeed to an office whose duties he has filled for sometime and for which he has shown himself to be in every way qualified. Other resignations besides those of Mr. Palmer may follow.

Sweden and Norway.

There is high military authority in Stockholm for stating that Sweden is taking precautionary measures on the frontier to offset the reported threatening attitude of Norway.

The Swedish Treasury yesterday borrowed $6,500,000 to pay extraordinary expenditures.

It is rumored that two high Norwegian officers have been arrested at Christiania because they refused to forswear allegiance to King Oscar.

Prominent merchants confirm a report that capitalists are withdrawing their funds from Norwegian banks.

Both houses of the Swedish Rigsdag on June 27 last elected extraordinary committees to which was referred a government bill embodying the terms of a settlement with Norway on the question of secession. The Norway debates on the bill showed that the majority of the speakers were of the opinion that a peaceful solution of the problem was difficult. In fact, the question of forcible opposition to secession was mooted and the national indignation reflected.

Comparison of the armies and navies of Norway and Sweden show that in Norway the troops of the line and other supports number about 80,000 men and 1,700 officers. Sweden has an army in time of peace of 37,000 men and 2,200 officers. Norway, however, can never have more than 18,000 men under arms, even in time of war, without the consent of the Storthing.

Norway's peace footing is about 20,000. Her navy consists of four modern armor-clads, four iron-clad monitors, three unarmored gunboats of ancient type each of 190 tons, eight of between 230 and 400 tons, nine of about 60 tons and 32 torpedo boats.

Sweden's navy is made up of 11 monitors for coast defense, 5 torpedo gunboats 2 destroyers, 26 torpedo boats and several gunboats and training ships.

of Ague and Malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to Quinine, having none of this drug's bad after-effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes. "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons drug store; price 50c. guaranteed.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. This being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Conviction Follows Trial

When buying loose coffee or anything your grocer happens to have in his bin, how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about coffee that is sold in bulk, could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to speak out.

Could any amount of mere talk have persuaded millions of housekeepers to use the leader of all package coffees for over a quarter of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands in Purity, Strength, Flavor and Uniformity?

Lion Coffee,

This popular success of LION COFFEE can be due only to inherent merit. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity.

If the verdict of MILLIONS OF HOUSEKEEPERS does not convince you of the merits of LION COFFEE, it costs you but a trifle to buy a package. It is the easiest way to convince yourself, and to make you a PERMANENT PURCHASER.

LION COFFEE is sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages, and reaches you as pure and clean as when it left our factory.

SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 8, 1905.

THE Standard Oil Company has won a tremendous victory in its warfare against the independent producers and refiners of petroleum in Kansas by reason of a decision of the State Supreme Court handed down yesterday, which outlaws the Kansas National Gas Company, a Delaware corporation, which had opposed the trust. The court also declares unconstitutional the law passed by the legislature last winter appropriating $410,000 to build an independent refinery at Peru. The oil refinery law was considered one of the most direct blows struck at the Standard Oil Company by the last legislature, which adopted several measures tending to restrict that concern in the handling of the Kansas product. The oil refinery law provided for the erection at Peru also of a branch of the state penitentiary to house sufficient prisoners who, it was intended, were to work the oil plant. State Treasurer T. T. Kelly and Warden E. B. Jewett, whose duty it was to issue the bonds, declined to sign them in order to secure a decision on the constitutionality of the act. Agent C. C. Coleman filed mandamus proceedings in the State Supreme Court on behalf of the State to compel these officers to sign the bonds. The opinion yesterday, declaring the act to be illegal and unconstitutional, was concurred in by all members of the Supreme Court. The court holds that the construction of the refinery and the branch penitentiary in connection with it is in violation of the State constitution, which declares: "The State shall never be a party in carrying on any works of internal improvement." The construction and operation of such a refinery, it is said, would be a work of internal improvement. This decision in the National Gas Company case, coming after the company had expended several millions of dollars in [illegible] means that many [illegible] the leaders in the crusade against [illegible] Standard Oil Company in [illegible]

[illegible] CONVENTION of [illegible]gue is in session at [illegible] Robert L. Reamy, of Baltimore, one of the delegates, made an attack upon tobacco yesterday. He said:

The very fumes of burning tobacco are an incentive to immoral and pernicious conduct. Tobacco smoke should be shunned, and those who must use the weed should do all in their power to keep the fumes from other people. A smoke-laden room is more harmful by far than the smokers imagine, and it inspires a spirit in those who inhale the smoke which is the doorstep to sin.

While the moral effect of tobacco is questioned by some, the fact that it destroys numerous disease germs has long been recognized, and, from a sanitary point of view, is regarded by many as useful. The assertion that the fumes of tobacco breed immorality and perniciousness may be questioned. The aborigine in his pacific mood smokes the pipe of peace, and some of the best-natured and moral among the white race enjoy cigars or pipes.

GOV. MONTAGUE spoke at Front Royal yesterday and recapitulated to the voters of Warren county the old story concerning his senatorial bee. He dwelt at length upon the primary system and attacked Senator Martin's attitude toward that measure. The governor explained his position on the Confederate soldier pension bill, stating that he favored and signed the bill, which provided for pensions. He declared he had no machine and concluded his remarks by exclaiming that if elected to the Senate he would "neither boss nor be bossed." Such expressions savor of the demagogue and usually come from intolerent men, who make poor representatives of the people. The United States Senate often contains a small percentage of such free lances, as they are pleased to call themselves, and they have ever proven to be failures and soon go into an eclipse. Their constituents rapidly grow tired of them, while their conferes desire to avoid their contact.

WHEN Mr. Cheatham, of Atlanta, the secretary of the Southern Cotton Association, complained to the Agricultural Department that figures relative to the cotton crop were manipulated to affect the market the whole department, from the secretary down, became indignant and most vehemently denied the charge. But now the report of the secret service agents on the cotton scandal in the department will cause a sensation. The report shows that the charges of Mr. Cheatham that figures relative to the cotton crop were not only manipulated for the purpose of affecting the market at different times, but that they were given out in advance by Edwin S. Holmes, associate statistician, who was suspended some days ago, for use in a speculative way by a broker in New York, are sustained. Every department in Washington seems to be honeycombed with corruption.

Walter Kittredge, the author, who wrote "Tenting on the old camp ground," died in Manchester, N. H., today. He was 80 years old.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., July 8.

One of the most astounding cases of crookedness on the part of a government employee was revealed today through the publication of the report of the recent service on the cotton crop report scandal. Numerous leakages and manipulations of the official reports are shown to have been committed by Edwin S. Holmes, associate statistician in the Bureau of Statistics of the Agriculture Department. He is the only official named, Chief Statistician John Hyde being unmentioned except for the statement that during his lengthy absence in Europe, Holmes, being in charge, had free hand in his crookedness and laid his lines for continuing his operations after Hyde's return. Secretary Wilson states that the evidence furnished by Richard Cheatham, Secretary of the Southern Cotton Planters' Association, and at whose instance the investigation was ordered, and the evidence procured by the secret service agents was submitted to District Attorney Beach, of the District of Columbia. That official reported that no criminal prosecution will lie, there being no statute to cover the offense. Hence, Holmes, who has made a fortune by his violation of trust, will go scot free, his only punishment being dismissal from the department. This was ordered this morning by Secretary Wilson. It is alleged that Holmes dealt with some of the biggest cotton bears on the New York Stock Exchange, including Theodore Price, and his returns must have been enormous. Apparently, besides receiving immense fees for these favors, he went at the market with both hands on his own hook and profited as only a man with his information could during the tumultous seasons the New York Cotton Exchange has experienced in recent years.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson this morning formally dismissed Edwin F. Holmes, associate statistician, from the goverment service, on the ground that he had furnished advance information of official crop reports to speculators and that he manipulated the figures of the reports for speculative purposes. The report of the investigation by the secret service shows that Holmes on [illegible] one occasion received $[illegible],000 from a firm of brokers, presumably for this advance information although the transaction was disguised as boning in payment for the sale of western mining stock which, it is said, was practically worthless. Secretary Wilson communicated yesterday with the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not Holmes could be prosecuted, but learned that there was no statute covering his case.

[illegible] to discharging Associate Statistician Holmes as a result of the investigation of the charges preferred by Richard Cheatham, of the Southern Cotton Growers' Association, Secretary Wilson today promulgated an order which will surround the collection and compilation of government statistics regarding crops with additional safeguards as to accuracy and will prevent advance information reaching the public. The Bureau of Statistics will be thoroughly reorganized; reports from field agents of the department will remain sealed in the custody of the Secretary or acting Secretary of Agriculture, until the day the official report is to be made up. In this connection, Mr. Wilson makes the following announcement: "There will never be at any time in the possession of the Bureau of Statistics, or of any one office of the department, except while the compilation of the official report is being made, complete information from the correspondents of all the cotton States. Texas and Georgia, two of the largest cotton-producing States, will be seperated from the group of reports from townships and counties. Hereafter there will be three federal special field agents, instead of one assigned to the work of collecting statistics for the cotton crop reports. These agents will have no communication with each other and will report on different groups of States. There will be no more opportunity for advance information on reports of speculative crops. In the report of the Secret Service, Edwin S. Holmes, former associate satistician, is the only departmental employee implicated, and I have dismissed him from the service of the department."

Victor H. Olmsted, has been appointed Associate Statistician of the Department of Agriculture, to succeed Edwin S. Holmes, discharged. Olmsted for some time past, held the position as Chief of Domestic Crop Reports, was formerly Assistant Statistician. Assistant Director of the Censuses of Cuba and the Phillipines.

Lieutenant General Adna R. Chaffee, chief of staff U. S. army, returned to this city today after an absence of four days on a pleasure trip down the Potomac in a yacht owned by Brigadier General William Crozier, chief of ordnance. When the party of three, consisting of Generals Chaffee and Crozier and Captain Wheeler, of the Ordnance Department, left this city on July 3d, they only intended remaining away over July 4th, but the macinery of their boat broke down at the mouth of Machodoc creek where they were delayed till repairs were made.

Chairman Keep's committee, investigating the big purchase of Lanston typesetting machines for the Government Printing Office, has dug up some interesting information relative to "Special Report No. 5," furnished Public Printer Palmer by Chief Engineer W. H. Tapley, and Auditor E. T. Bushnell. On this report the contract for 72 Lanston machines was made, but the searching inquiry of the committee shows that the report was ambiguous, promised additional investigation, and in one or two important details stated inaccurate figures upon the cost of work done by the Lanston. The statement was made that the cost of composition with the Lanston was a little more than 24 cents per 1,000 ems, while the cost with Mergenthalers is 34 cents and by hand composition 51 cents. In the appendix, however, it was shown that the actual cost with Lanstons was 37 cents, "plus." What the last word means in this connection, the investigators have been unable to learn. John R. Berg, foreman of the record room and president of the Columbia Typographical Union, is the only man so far examined who talks about Lanston stock. He admitted purchasing 1,000 shares at 9 a year ago, and selling it about election time at 13. Testimony so far taken shows that the Megenthaler machines do as good book work as the government printers can ask. The chief claim made for the Lanston is that it is the best book machine. "Special report No. 5" stated that the "monotype machine would set 67.7 per cent. more than the linotype in a given period of time."

A mass meeting of the delegates to the 22nd International Christian Endeavor Convention, which has been in session in Baltimore the past week, was held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the east front of the capitol. The service followed a forenoon's sight seeing, which included Arlington and Mt. Vernon. The welcoming address was delivered by President Macfarland, of the board of District Commissioners, with "international peace" as the watchword. Bishop Fallow, of Chicago, in responding dwelt upon the accomplishment of the society. A choir of three hundred trained voices lead the singing.

Neither the State nor Navy Departments have received any news regarding a recent outbreak in Santo Domingo as reported in the press dispatches.

The yellow fever situation at Panama is improving. There has not been a new case since the 27th of June and all the sick have recovered. The turning on of the new water supply in Panama, which occurred on July 4th, will, it is hoped, do much to maintain this good record and prevent the recurrence of the disease.

News of the Day.

[illegible]r. Barton, the bacteriologist of the [illegible]adoupe, has discovered at Lima, [illegible]llao and Miraflores, Peru, a number [illegible] of mosquitoes of the kind which produce [illegible]laria and yellow fever infection.

Relinquishing $300,000 a year as trust lawyer and organizer, James B. Dill has become a New Jersey judge at the salary of $3,000 a year. His appointment was opposed by varied interests, notably the biggest trust of his creation, the United States Steel Corporation. Lawyers and judges alike frowned upon his selection, but the governor of New Jersey thinks it the best he ever made. Mr. Dill in recent years has scored the trusts, and what his attitude toward them as a judge will be is problematical.

It is reported that the Pope has taken the following measures in view of the passage by the French Chamber of the bill for the separation of church and State: The French bishops are ordered to be silent when the bill is officially promulgated. The Pope will publish an encyclical recording the Vatican's protest. The bishops will remain where they are, but only as vicars apostolic, swayed by a legate chosen by the Vatican. French Catholicism and its vicars will be under the authority of the Propagands.

During the terrific rainstorm yesterday from 11 a. m. to 1:15 p. m., which established a record for precipitation in that time, the northeastern section of Baltimore suffered extensively from the rapidly rising water and considerable damage was also done along the Harford and Belair roads in the vicinities of Lauraville and Gardenville. The streets in the city were flooded for the second time in two days, and in several sections the water rose so rapidly that the residents became alarmed after the example set by the storm on Wednesday. One man was struck by lightning, but he was not seriously injured. Several telephone and telegraph poles were struck.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

Passengers on eastbound Baltimore and Ohio train No. 8 due at Winchester at 9:17 yesterday morning says that a bold attempt was made to wreck the train at Middletown, Frederick county, 12 miles south of Winchester, yesterday morning. According to the version of several passengers, large rocks had been placed in a switch near the station at Middletown, and, had the train been running at full speed, a disastrous wreck could hardly have been averted. As it was, the engineer saw the obstruction in time to bring his train to a standstill just as the wheels of the engine crashed into the rocks, some of which had been driven between the rails and others piled on the track. An early freight train had passed Middletown a short time before the eastbound train reached there, and at that time the track was clear. It is understood that railroad detectives who have for several months past been working on the series of attempts to wreck trains on the Valley division of the Baltimore and Ohio between Winchester and Kernstown, and who several weeks ago arrested Oscar W. Bromley, an insane youth, as the culprit, have been ordered back to make an investigation of yesterday's attempt. The detectives have no clue to the wreckers, but a strict patrol of the tracks is being maintained. No. 8 is a fast passenger and mail train running from Strasburg Junction to Harper's Ferry.

Submarine Raised.

The French Ministry of Marine has issued a communication saying that the combined efforts of French and German salvage tugs succeeded yesterday afternoon in bringing to the surface the submarine boat Farfadet, which sank Thursday morning at the entrance to the port of Sidi Abdallah, Tunis. Water, provisions and fresh air were supplied to the members of the encased crew, who are alive. The submarine was being slowly towed into shallow water when some of the cables snapped, the boat remaining suspended in a perpendicular posisian held by a cable from a French tug. Efforts are being made to fix grappling irons. An Italian tug has arrived to aid in the rescue.

Paris, July 8.—A dispatch received from Biserta, Tunis, says that the submarine boat Farfadet, which sank on Thursday at the entrance to the port of Sidi Abdallah, was finally raised this morning. The crew, consisting of Ensign Robin and nine men, was dead when the vessel was finally brought to the surface.

Virginia News.

Congressman Claude A. Swanson spoke in the courthouse at Fredericksburg last night. Col. E. D. Cole, city democratic chairman, presided, and the speaker was introduced by C. O'Conner Goolrick. Mr. Swanson was warmly greeted by a large crowd. His speech created enthusiasm and made a good impression.

By an overwhelming vote the Richmond City Democratic Committee last night declined to accede to the request made by C. V. Meredith that a committee of three name one judge in each precinct for the primary August 22. This proposition was made to insure a fair primary. The committee adopted a plan instead, allowing the candidates affected to make the selection.

A dispatch from Danville says that Hampton Oakes, white, and James Pannell, colored, ferrymen at Towlers ferry, on Staunton river, were drowned while rowing a party across the river Thursday evening In the boat were J. A. Ferguson and his bride of a few hours; Rev. Mr. Brooks, the minister who had married them; Walter Johnston and the drowned men. The cable connecting the boat with the overhead cable broke, causing the boat to turn with the current and fill. Pannell and Oakes jumped out and were immediately drowned. Johnston climbed to the overhead cable and succeeded in towing the boat ashore. The other three people narrowly escaped death.

The Smith Murder Case.

The evidence in the case of Mrs. Estelle Smith, for whipping her five-year-old child to death, at Manchester yesterday, was finished yesterday, and two and one-half hours were spent in arguing the instructions. These will be delivered by the court today, when the argument of the case will commence. A worn and weary party entered the courtroom at the opening of the trial yesterday. The prisoner is dejected. Commonwealth's Attorney Page had a fainting spell on the street and was wan and pale, and the jurors, who have been closely kept during the hot weather, were tired. A verdict may be reached late tonight.

John Lum was arrested in Manchester last night on suspicion that he was about to make an attack on H. M. Smith, jr., a well-known lawyer. Lum was bailed in the sum of $300.

Mr. Smith is senior counsel for Mrs Estelle Smith. Mrs. Lum was a commonwealth's witness and she was attacked by Attorney Smith while she was the witness stand. Lum was said to have threatened to hold Smith up with a pistol while his wife horsewhipped him. He said last night that he would have done it had it not been too expensive. Mr. Smith says he had not bothered his head about Lum.

The case today was submitted to the jury without argument, and the jury brought in a verdict of voluntary manslaughter, and fixed Mrs. Smith's punishment at five years in the penitentiary. When the verdict was announced Mrs. Smith and Commonwealth's Attorney Page, both fell in a dead faint, and had to be removed from the room.

Alarm at Manila.

The United States monitor Monadnock has been anchored close to the Russian warships interned at Manila because of indications of rebellion among the Russian sailors. Merchant ships have also been moved from the vicinity of the Russian warships.

The crew of the battleship Catherine II., of the Black Sea fleet, has joined the rebellion.

The rebel battleship Kniaz Potemkin is still in the Black Sea, the Russian naval authorities evidently fearing to attack her. She left Theodosia before a Russian cruiser and a torpedo boat arrived there.

Before leaving Theodosia the Kniaz Potemkin is reported to have obtained coal from a British collier.

Reports that the rebel battleship sailed in the direction of Livadia causes alarm for the safety of the Czar's summer palace. The Czar, it is said, will go to Moscow, to be close to the Holy Kremlin.

Nicholas Going to Moscow.

According to a dispatch from St. Petersburg Emperor Nicholas is going to Moscow. In this connection the St. Petersburg Listak prints a rumor that the Emperor has decided to transfer the capital back to Moscow. Such a transfer has been seriously agitated time after time on the ground that the true heart of Russia beats under the shadow of the Holy Kremlin and not at the showy capital on the banks of the Neva. The last general agitation for the transfer was after the assassination of Alexander II. The government is seriously trying to calm the country by distributing everywhere copies of Prince Troubetskoy's Zemstvo address with the Emperor's response. A million copies have been printed and systematically spread by the provincial governors in the cities and country. Besides this the Emperor has personally commissioned Count Ignatieff, who is the head of the religious toleration commission, to tour the country, address the people and pacify them in his name.

Wife and Cousin Accused by Husband

Into two of the Philadelphia's wealthy families scandal has crept and despite great efforts at secrecy news of it has leaked out in proceedings at law. Surprise was created yesterday among large circles of friends of the families of John Wesley Allison and William C. Allison by the announcement that the former had caused the arraignment before 'Squire Brooks, at Ardmore, of his wife, Mrs. Irene Allison, and the husband's cousin, William C. Allison. SURRENDER OF POTEMKIN.

Kustenji, Roumania, July 8.—The Kniaz Potemkin surrender to the authorities here at one o'clock this afternoon.

One of the things asked by the mutineers as a condition of their surrender is that they shall be furnished with Roumanian passports and shall not be extradicted to Russia. The local authorities are awaitiug instructions from Bucharest, the capital, before making final terms with the mutineers. In the meantime, the torpedo boat and one of the launches from the Kniaz Potemkin are taking the soundings at the entrance to to the harbor to find a channel through which the battleship may pass. The captain of the port is preparing a berth where the battleship and torpedo boat may lie in the harbor. Both the Kniaz Potemkin and the torpedo boat are now flying the Russian naval flag. The greatest excitement prevails here. The people sympathize with the mutineers and may make some demonstration in their favor. The terms which the Roumanian officials offered to the crew of the Kniaz Potemkin when the battleship arrived there on Monday and which the mutineers today asked should again be extended to them were: That all the mutineers should come ashore unarmed and surrender to the navy department, which would take charge of the Russian vessels, and that the mutineers would be regarded as deserters from a foreign country during their stay in Roumania. In case they accepted these terms, the Roumanian authorities promised to furnish supplies to the Russians and said they would be given their liberty to go where they pleased.

London, July 8.—The correspondent of the Evening Standard at Kustenji, Roumania, wires that the mutinous Russian battleship Kniaz Potemkin arrived there at midnight. The port captain boarded the vessel for a conference with her crew.

Throughout the night the Potemkin exchanged flash signals with the Russian gunboat Psesuope, which was inside the harbor, and which so far has remained loyal to the government.

Kustenji, Roumania, July 8.—A deputation from the mutinous battleship Kniaz Potemkin, which arrived here at midnight, rowed ashore this morning to treat with the authorities here for the surrender of the battleship and the torpedo boat which has accompanied her on her piratical cruise of the Black Sea.

The delegation was received by the general commanding the district, the Black Sea division and the port captain. The mutineers offered to surrender the Potemkin and her torpedo boat consort on the same terms offered by the Roumanian authorities on Monday, when the battleship put into this harbor.

The deputation was informed that the terms offered on Monday would still be given them, but the Roumanian officers asked that the breech blocks of the guns on the Potemkin should be surrendered as a pledge of good faith on the part of the mutineers.

After hearing the offer of the Roumanian officials the deputation returned to the vessel to consult with their comrades.

The mutineers appeared to be anxious that no harm should come to the vessel, but they did not want her handed over to the Russian government. They offered to present the vessel to Roumania, but the tender was not accepted by the authorities.

Two sailors of the vessel who rowed ashore with the delegation which came to treat for surrender deserted, as soon as they reached the quay.

A Significant Speech.

St. Petersburg, July 8.—An incident which well illustrates the spirit of many of the officers of the Russian army and shows their attitude toward the war in Manchuria is reported from Krasnoe-Selo where there is a large military camp. The colonel of a regiment made the following speech to his soldiers: "Why do you obey orders to go to the front? You are not fighting for your fatherland. You are like cattle led forth to the slaughter. The Japanese are defending their vital interests and why should you wish to kill them, when they are struggling for liberty? You should unite to refuse to obey orders to proceed to the front. If all the regiments would do this, their commanders must submit and the war would soon come to an end."

This speech was repeated to the correspondent of the Publishers' Press by an officer whom he has known for years to be absolutely trustworthy

The nobles of the Koorsk district recently sent an address to the Czar expressing their hope that the war will be continued and saying they are ready to shed the last drop of their blood to keep up the contest. When this became known to the Zemstvos of the Kamishin, Chernigoff and Kieff districts they sarcastically telegraphed to the nobles in the Koorsk district who signed the address, saying, "We wish you success in your future military exploits."

Tom Cat and Wedding Party.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 8.—While Thomas King, aged 72, a four-time husband, and Elizabeth Jones, aged 80, being herself a three-time bride, were once more being launched on the matrimonial sea, and just as the Rev. Dr. Gordon was uttering the final words that would make them man and wife, a large black tom cat jumped in through an open window and did a loop-the-loop in the bridal veil, fastening all four feet in the veil and orange blossoms which Mrs. Jones wore. When finally pulled off by the excited bridegroom, it carried souvenirs of hair in its four feet and front teeth. The excitement which followed caused a fire alarm which brought out the entire department. After the excitement had quieted down and the hungry and excited guests, together with the bride and groom, were wondering as to what would follow next, it was discovered that the wedding supper which had been casefully prepared, had been relieved of all its goodies After recovering his equilibrium, the bridegroom declared himself by vowing vengeance on everyone of the crowd, no matter what inducements were offered to effect a settlement.

Watchman Perished in Flames.

Boston, July 8.—Up to an early hour this morning, the body of Augustus Bossett, watchman for C. W. Leatherbee & Co., who is supposed to have perished in the big lumber yard fire on Albany street, last night, had not been recovered. The evidence points very strongly to the theory that a firebug's brand started the fire which swept nearly three acres of property in the lumber district at the south end, resulting in the death of Bossett and causing an aggregate damage of abont $200,000.

Later in the day the body was found by firemen searching the ruins. It was badly charred and the features were burned beyond recognition.

Society Woman Divorced.

After a quiet hearing before a master last April, the report of which was filed on June 20, a decree of divorce has been granted in Philadelphia to Mrs. Josephine J. Woddrop.

Although she has been married for twenty years and has a son 18 years old, Mrs. Woddrop is still a handsome woman. She is the daughter of Samuel Josephs, one of the most powerful of the Philadelphia political leaders in his time, and a man of means. Joseph's widow died last January and Mrs. Woddrop, with the other surviving child, received her share of the estate, which is valued at $750,000.

The charge which she brought against her husband was desertion. Her counsel, Henry J. Scott, would not discuss the case further than to say that it contained no sensational features and that Mr. Woddrop made no defense. The decree was handed down on July 3 by Judges von Moschzisker and McMichael in Common Pleas Court No. 3.

Mrs. Woddrop is now living in New York. She has been separated from her husband about three years. Mr. Woddrop has the son in his custody.

Petersburg to Issue Bonds.

The money will be provided by a bond issue, which has been authorized. A number of extra appropriations for the waterworks, street and fire departments were made, and the bicycle ordinance, passed on Tuesday, forbidding the use of wheels on any sidewalk in the city, was reconsidered and passed by a vote of 10 to 7, with an amendment including Central Park. Rev. Dr. W. C. Taylor appeared before the council to request that clergymen and physicians be exempt from the provisions of this ordinance, but the request was denied.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 8.—In the last few minutes there has been the usual selling out and closing of contracts by room traders and pretty nearly all the active stocks reacted from the highest. He said: "We discussed the eastern troubles at some length, but it would not be proper for me to give you an account of our conversation. You will have to see the President about that."

ROOSEVELT ON WEALTH.

President Roosevelt delivered an address before the National Educational Association at Ocean Grove, N. J., yesterday, during which he said:

"Where altogether too much prominence is given to the mere possession of wealth, the country is under heavy obligations to such a body as this, which substitutes for the idea of accumulating money the infinitely loftier, nonmaterialistic ideal of devotion to work worth doing simply for that work's sake.

"The chief harm done by the men of swollen fortune to the community is not the harm that the demagogue is apt to depict as springing from their actions, but the fact that their success sets up a false standard.

"Though it is eminently right to take whatever steps are necessary in order to prevent the exceptional members of his (the rich man's) class from doing harm, it is wicked folly to let ourselves be drawn into any attack upon the man of wealth merely as such.

"The clamor of the demagogue, the snobbery of the social columns of the newspapers which deal with the doings of the wealthy and the misconduct of those men of wealth who act with brutal disregard of the rights of others * * * spring from shortcomings which are fundamentally the same; and one of these shortcomings is the failure to have proper ideals.

"It is absolutely necessary to earn a certain amount of money; it is a man's first duty to those dependent upon him for support; but after a certain point has been reached moneymaking can never stand on the same plane with other and nobler forms of effort.

No More June Weddings.

Rev. George H. Brownlee, pastor of a church in Belfast, Me., has created a sensation among his parishioners and the people of Waldo county by refusing to marry any couple in June.

The decision of the minister, made after long and careful study of the matter, was announced on the last Sunday in May, and the startled members of the flock—especially those who had planned their nuptials for the month of roses—are up in arms. Dr. Brownlee declares June weddings immoral and wrong in principal, and states that never again will he perform a ceremony during the 30 days that constitute the period. He has produced figures, gathered from court records of the United States, Canada and England, to show that a greater proportion of persons married in June are divorced than of any other month—the proportion being so large as to lead him in the first instance to investigate.

That Sunken Spanish Gold.

A dispatch from Tobermory, Scotland, says: On Thursday James Cush, a Scottish diver, began work at the scene of the wreck of the Florencia, the treasure ship of the Spanish Armada, which was cast away on the coast of Scotland while trying to make its way back to Spain after the armada's defeat. Within a few hours he had sufficient proof, in the form of sword blades found, to show that the divers were in close proximity to the treasure ship. After a search that has been carried on at intervals ever since 1642, there is every indication that the wreck of the Florencia, treasure ship of the Spanish Armada, has at last been located, and the Duke of Argyll, whose family has for three centuries had this treasure in mind, has made preparations for the raising of the gold and silver ingots.

The Knights of Honor.

Since the recent action of the national officials of the Royal Arcanum in materially increasing the assessments of members who have passed the age of 60 years, attention has been directed toward other fraternal insurance organizations, and those interested in the same have become more or less apprehensive as to whether they will be called upon to face similar conditions. The Knights of Honor, a branch of which is located in Alexandria, has already been made to realize that members of that organization who have reached the Osler age will be compelled to increase their assessments in order to maintain their standing. The Knights of Honor claim to be the nucleus of the Royal Arcanum and other similar fraternal institutions, and men who have grown old in the order and whose interests have ever been centred in its welfare will have to surmount present difficulties or drop out of the ranks. The Knights of Honor and the Royal Arcanum are both valued institutions, embracing on their rolls many esteemed and representative citizens, and it is the universal wish that present difficulties may soon pass away.

Navy Yard Employees.

It is stated that there is no friction between the authorities of the Navy Department and the machinists employed at the Washington navy yard over the question of the right of the machinists to a half holiday on Saturdays. A decision on the subject was expected today. Mr. Emmett L. Adams, president of Columbia Lodge of Machinists, which embraces 1,600 of the machinists employed in the naval gun factory, stated yesterday that he had just finished a conference with the legislative committee of Columbia Lodge, and that he was very firmly of the opinion there would be no friction between the members of his association and the officials of the naval gun factory, nor would there be any violations of the regulations of discipline under which they are employed because of the misunderstanding about the half holiday on Saturday. Mr. Adams said that the machinists would continue, in a proper way, to press for a final decision by the department on their position.

Accident to Ice Wagon.

One of the wagons belonging to the Mutual Ice Company rolled over on its side and party down the steep embankment on the north side of the electric railway track in front of Mr. Benjamin Baggett's residence, upper King street, yesterday. Fortunately no one was hurt by the accident. Attention has been called to this dangerous place several times recently, as a number of vehicles have been upset there during the past few months. It seems that it is incumbent upon the Alexandria authorities to act in the matter.

The New Assessment.

Mr. Edgar F. Thompson has completed the reassessment of the city for 1905. The total of taxable values is $3,892,960. This gives for the State $23,405 over 1904. The Constitution requires the city to adopt the valuation of the State, and after 1905 all city taxes will be based on the State assessment, and will stand for five years. The above figures will increase values for city purposes about $115,000.

Pure Ice and Water.

The advertisement of the Mutual Ice Company will be found elsewhere in the Gazette. The quality of ice furnished by the company is unexcelled and it gives satisfaction in every particular. Mico Water, which has achieved a just reputation for its purity, is being furnished. This product is used by many in this city and elsewhere, and its sales are steadily increasing.

Death of a Former Resident.

Mrs. Annie F. Charles, widow of Henry Charles, died at her home in Charlottesville this morning. The deceased was a daughter of the late Jonas Fisher. She leaves several children. The remains will be brought to the city for interment, and the funeral will take place Monday afternoon.

The game of baseball to have been played yesterday between the Invincibles and the Potomacs was forfeited to the former, the required number of the players on the Potomacs failing to appear. An exhibition game was later arranged between the Invincibles and a "scrub" team composed of some of the Potomacs and players of other teams. The latter won by a score of 6 to 3. The game was full of errors and bad playing was shown by both teams.

A game of baseball will be played this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock between the Virginias and the Old Dominions on the fair grounds.

The Market.

There was a fine display of country produce in market this morning, most of which was offered at reasonable prices. Butter ranged from 20 to 25 cents a pound, eggs 20 cents a dozen and chickens from 20 to 50 cents each. There was an abundance of seasonable fruit on the benches. Raspberries sold from 8 to 12 cents a box, blackberries 10 cents, and huckleberries 18 cents. There was a plethora of vegetables, and all, save tomatoes, sold at low prices.

Crushed by Steamer.

As the steamer Jane Moseley was coming into her wharf at Washington about 9 o'clock last night, George Jenifer, colored, one of her crew, jumped over the front railing to attend to the mooring, and was caught between the boat and the piles at the wharf. Several of his ribs were broken and he suffered serious internal injuries. His recovery is unlikely. Jenifer is thirty-three years old.

The Modern Protective Association Lodge of Alexandria, have changed their lodge rooms from the Junior Order of Mechanics Hall to the hall in the Alexandria National Bank building, and meet there on the 2d and 4th Mondays in each month. Next Monday night, after the business of the order has been disposed of, the members will partake of a feast of seasonable refreshments.

Alexandria Steam Laundry.

Some new and modern machinery has been installed in the Alexandria Steam Laundry, among which is an improved mangel weighing 13,000 pounds. This laundry is now turning out work in no way inferior to that of any in the world, and its customers are increasing daily. Twenty-five persons are employed and the company pays out about $200 weekly in wages.

Police Court.

There was but one case before the Police Court this morning, that of Charles Weldon, who had been arrested by Officers Beach and Allen, charged with improper conduct. He was released upon promising to leave the city.

Officer Allen found a horse and buggy in the street last night and took them to the station house.

Completing the Work.

That portion of the force employed by Reiter, Curtis & Hill, contractors employed on the new railroad improvements between Mallow station and St. Asaph, have about completed that work. The men with the machinery with which they operated, are being sent to Newport, Pa., where the firm has another contract.

Fell Through Shaft.

Mr. John S. Greene, while in a store on the east side of Fairfax street, between King and Cameron, yesterday evening fell through an elevator shaft into the cellar, and was painfully injured. He was removed to his home where he was attended by Dr. McGuire.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five minutes I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy it for sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

To Study the Potomac.

With the view to safeguarding the public health and in furtherance of its scientific work, the Bureau of Forestry, in co-operation with the Geological Survey, has begun a study of the conditions of the watershed of the Potomac river and its tributaries. The general plan will include a determination of all causes of contamination, both from domestic and industrial sources, and because of bare and eroded watersheds. The tributaries of the Potomac will be critically examined in Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia and probably in Pennsylvania, the purpose being to find out and lessen if possible the amount of solid matter carried down the river during freshets. In this way material aid is expected to be given future filtration of the water for domestic purposes.

Greatly in Demand.

Alexandria Gazette.
SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 8, 1905.

HICKS FOR JULY.

We enter July in the midst of a regular storm period which is central on the 2nd, and extending to the 5th. An extreme summer warmth will reach a crisis on or about the 2nd, the falling of the barometer and many storms and gusts of rain, wind, and thunder will pass across the country eastwardly from 2nd to the 5th.

At the reactionary storm period, central on the 7th, 8th and 9th, there is great probability that we will enter upon a period of prolonged disturbance, as this is indicated by the extended Vulcan brace blended with Mars and Mercury. After these storms, fair weather with change to cooler may result, but the chances are fair that continued threatening and cloudy conditions will prevail until the 10th, at which time the Vulcan storm period is central. This period would extend normally from about the 12th to 14th, but under the influence of Mercury and Mars this limit will most likely be overleaped.

Sections where storms and rains have not dominated the weather, sustained heat and hurtful dryness will be prolonged. Abnormal weather and a crisis of storm will be experienced about the 14th to 16th, after which the barometer will rise and change to cooler will come to most parts.

Reactionary storms forces will be felt on or about the 20th, 21st, and 22nd, causing very high temperature, falling barometer and threatening weather and storms. The Vulcan storm period will be central on the 25th, and covers from the 23rd to the 27th. Many of these July periods will bring hail storms to many sections in the middle and northwest.

The closing of July will be with excessively high temperature or a marked warm wave extending from western to eastern sections.

The second new moon in July falls on the 31st within a few days of the center of the Venus disturbance. This fact indicates phenomenal storms, followed by sudden changes to very cool.

Conning Tower to Go.

It was reported at the New York navy yard yesterday that the conning tower as at present in use on United States warships will be discontinued, or so modified as to cease to be the central control station of the ship's movements. The towers were designed as a place of security for the officer directing the ship and contain means of communicating with other parts of the ship, and is a center of much sensitive apparatus which might easily be disarranged. In the recent naval battles in the far East the Japanese concentrated a heavy fire on the towers, the communication system was dislocated and some of the Russian ships rendered unmanageable. One of the alternative propositions is to reserve an armor protected space lower in the ship's structure than the conning tower, from which the officer in charge might direct the ship's movements. It is reported that not only will the conning towers be discontinued in the new battleships yet to be built, but that they will be altered or modified in present ships, including the Maine, Missouri, Kentucky, Kearsarge and Illinois.

A Grim Tragedy

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes, as Death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Cold which cured her, and to-day she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guranteed at 50c and $1.00 by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist. Try them today.
